FACULTY/STAFF REFERENCE GUIDE TO ASSIST VICTIMS/SURVIVORS WHO REPORT SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Faculty and staff are in a unique position to assist those who report sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment and assault. Outlined below is information to guide you in responding to and supporting someone who confides in you.

What should I do?

1 STEP ONE: LISTEN

- Listen openly and be supportive. Refrain from judgmental questions. Don't allow myths to affect how you perceive the survivor.
- Encourage the person to seek support services. Confidential and non-confidential campus and community options are available at TitleIX.osu.edu.
- If the person is in immediate danger, offer to assist in calling 911.

What should I say?

2 STEP TWO: SUPPORT

"I appreciate your coming to me for support. I want to make you aware of my role's limitations. As an employee I have an obligation to report any incident of sexual assault to the Title IX Coordinator or a Title IX Deputy Coordinator. I also want to make you aware of resources on campus where you can discuss your situation confidentially and seek support if needed. I can't keep this confidential, yet we can keep it private." Faculty and supervisors also have the duty to report instances of sexual harassment of which they are aware.

Who should I contact?

3 STEP THREE: REPORT

- Report incident to the Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Coordinator in Student Conduct or Human Resources via phone, email or in person.
- Share all the relevant details, including name, date, time or location of incident, and the names of anyone identified by the person as an alleged perpetrator or witness.
- Survivors of crimes such as sexual assault, stalking, domestic or dating violence are strongly encouraged to report the crime to law enforcement.

Additional Tips

What to say to a victim/survivor:

- I'm sorry this happened to you.
- It wasn't your fault.
- Thank you for trusting me with this information.
- I'm always here if you want to talk.
- Can I help you get connected to resources?

What NEVER to say to a victim/survivor:

- It was your fault.
- You could have avoided it had you _____.
- It's been so long! Get over it!
- You wanted it. / You were asking for it.
- It's not that big of deal; it happens to lots of people.
- I don't believe you.
